

WILL THE JEWS ACCEPT A MUSLIM ANTICHRIST?

In the discussion concerning whether the Jews would accept a Muslim Antichrist as their Messiah, there's a blend of truth and misconception.

It's accurate to say that the Jewish people wouldn't acknowledge a Muslim as their Messiah, as their Scriptures specify that their deliverer will be of Jewish descent. However, it's incorrect to assume that the Antichrist must be received as the Messiah by the Jews, for the Scriptures do not make such a claim.

The Scriptures do tell us that the Antichrist will confirm a seven-year treaty with Israel, which seems less like the fond union with a Savior, and more like a truce between conflicting parties.

Furthermore, the Scriptures unveil that midway through this pact, the Antichrist will violate the treaty, desecrate the temple (the abomination of desolation), claim divinity, and initiate a worldwide persecution of Jews, Christians, and all who stand against him. This is clearly an act of aggression against the Jewish people and their sacred site, not an embrace of a Messiah.

Scripture never suggests that the Jews will recognize the Antichrist as their Messiah. It does suggest that they will engage with him in a peace treaty, seeking an end to ongoing hostilities.

Ultimately, while the Antichrist won't be welcomed as the Jewish Messiah, he will be acknowledged as the architect of a seven-year peace treaty aimed at halting perpetual conflict. The Jews will accept him solely as a peacemaker, but through this deception of peace, he will take control of Jerusalem and the temple and use his military and political powers to kill the Jews in mass—all the Jews.
